Farewell to Bro. Tim Lamb: If all the travel arrangements work out, this Bro. Tim will be leaving on July 15th for his new assignment at our mission church in Jamaica. He joins two other of our friars, Jim Bok and Colin King, in Negril. Tim has served for the last few years as our Vocation Director.

We pray for blessings in this next adventure of his Franciscan life.

Peace Prayer of St. Francis

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace; where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; and where there is sadness, joy. Grant that I may not so much need to be consoled as to console; to be understood, as to understand, to be loved as to love; for it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

OUR MISSION:
 Saint Francis Seraph is a Catholic faith community. We are called to serve with and among the people of Over-the-Rhine. Our mission is to share the powerful love of Jesus Christ, which changes lives and communities. In the spirit of Saint Francis, we proclaim the Gospel through worship, education and social justice.

A Short History of St Francis Seraph Parish
 Saint Francis Seraph Church is a Roman Catholic parish in the Archdiocese of Cincinnati, established by the Franciscan Friars of the Province of St. John the Baptist. In November 1858, the cornerstone was laid for the present St. Francis Seraph Church, and it was consecrated December 18, 1859, with the School opening the same year. In 2000, the church building underwent a major remodel. The social ministries of the Franciscans continued to develop into the 21st century, maintaining the friars historic commitment to Over-the-Rhine in the area of social service. St. Francis Seraph Parish and School continue the friars' parochial and educational ministry. The Parish, School and Ministries are affiliated in a covenant, which expresses the relationship which they share.

Pastor's Corner

Thomas of Celano, the earliest biographer of St. Francis of Assisi, writes:
"Once on pilgrimage to Rome, out of love for poverty, Francis took off his fine clothing and dressed himself in a poor man's clothes. He happily among the poor in the square in front of the church of St. Peter, a place where the poor are abundant. Considering himself one of them, he eagerly ate with them. If his embarrassed friends had not restrained him, he would have done this many times."

Many days, St. Francis Seraph also has an abundance of the poor who gather on the steps and in the shade in front of the church. Often during the day, folks find refuge sleeping in the pews or just resting, even praying in the church. It can get messy! It will always be a struggle to know what is best.

I'm glad we have begun to sponsor the Sunday lunches on the plaza. I think it is still good that we open the church during the day (with security personnel present) to give people a sense of sanctuary from the heat, the night spent on the street, whatever.

The prophet Isaiah says of a proper fast: "Is it not to share your bread with the hungry, and bring the homeless poor into your house; when you see the naked, to cover them, and not hide yourself from your own kin? Then your light shall break forth like the dawn and your healing shall spring up quickly."

200th Anniversary Books We continue to display these two books on the back table in church: Treasures of the Archdiocese (a pictorial book of many beautiful churches around the Archdiocese) $30.00; and an Illustrated History of the Archdiocese, for children and folks of all ages $15.00. Orders will be sent to churches in September. One or both of these might be a good gift at Christmastime to someone who would appreciate a book of this kind.

Exercise Daily. Walk with the Lord.

My Parish is composed of people like me. I help make it what it is. It will be friendly, if I am. It will be holy, if I am. Its pews will be filled if I help fill them. This we pray.

WELCOME GUESTS!...If you are visiting with us today, we want you to know how welcome you are, whether you have come from another parish here in the Archdiocese, from across the river, or from further reaches. Thank you for praying with us. Feel free to join us as often as you can! If you are new to the parish, parking is available in the school lot and the two lots over on Moore Street. You can park there until 1pm. Help us grow! REGISTER PLEASE! if you are attending St. Francis Seraph regularly and consider us "your parish"-please register yourself and your family. Forms are available on the table in church.

Please contact Br. Tim or the parish office at 535-2719 if you or someone in your family is ill in order to be included in our weekly prayers for the sick. Greta asks for prayers for the repose of the soul of Ann Brown.

Our every other Sunday event takes place today and again on July 25. We provide this simple Meal to our neighbors living on the streets or just walking by. Most importantly, we Hope to be building relationships among our parishioners and these neighbors. John Reder is our coordinator and sign-up sheets are in the church so you can Volunteer. You can also reach him at tacticalneuronics@gmail.com.

Volunteers a plenty!

At least five people offered to help with the indexing of the recent Baptismal book. There may be other such projects on the horizon so that we can use all of this volunteer energy!
